RECONSTITUTE THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF AUSTRALIA ON THE BASIS OF MARXISM-LENINISM-MAOISM!

RABBLE ROUSER NO. 50

US President George. W. Bush author of the not too best seller "axis of evil" stands at the border of North and South Korea looking north. Just like John Foster Dulles did in the 1950's before the USA and South Korea invaded the North to start the Korean War which killed several million people.

While Bush is saying he has no intention of invading the north, he said 'we are ready' He accused the north of not caring about the people in Nth Korea, 'it starves its children while a massive army is fed'. The chieftan of American imperialism then went to Peking to persuade them to cut ties with the 'axis of evil' and join the US in the global war against 'terrorism'.

The visit to China takes place as a 'ring of steel ' is placed around China: USA bases from Central Asia to S.Korea. China has already supported the Bush war against terrorism just like the obedient revisionists they are.

Mao Tsetung is no longer there. If he was there , there would have been massive demonstrations against the vicious policy of the imperialists, led by the USA.

The US President didn't need to come to Australia to ask for support for the 'axis of evil', as it has already been given. The Australian government jumped first, bending over as far as possible!

Australian troops went to Afghanistan, and took over the blockade of Iraq, and the ruling class lapped up the praise given from the White House.

The Australian people are not so sure. There are increasing numbers of people taking the long journey to Woomera, the camp in the desert where temperatures reach 50 degrees, camps used 50 years ago to house British and Australian troops for the British Atomic tests, most of whom are since dead from cancer.

The refugees are caged and isolated from the people, treated like criminals, have less rights than criminals. Young Australian people have attempted to tear down the wire fences with their bare hands and are hosed by the police, many have been arrested. These detention camps are in inaccessible places and to demonstrate there requires youth and strength to make the journey. Lawyers can't visit the imprisoned, the press can't get in. It is shades of Fascist Germany of the 1930's. The refugees are from Afghanistan and Iraq mostly. They make the long and dangerous journey to Australia while Australia is participating in the carnage in their homeland. Even children are imprisoned. More and more people need to stand up against this terrible policy.

The Media

The mass media feeds the people with lies constantly. In spite of this 2000 young people made the 1000 km journey to Woomera over the Easter holiday.

Woomera

They marched on the prison camp, carrying flags and chanting , “Freedom”. The 5 m barbed-wire fence gave way to their climbing and came down. The people ran for the next fences, over the wire and the sandbags and the state police stood back. The demonstrators reached the refugees. They embraced and laughed and cried . They gave the toys and flowers and chanted Freedom. A number of people escaped from the concentration camp.

The media news was scant, but a number of people were caught and arrests were made by the Federal police who arrived in large numbers. Speakers at the site demanded an end to manitory detention for refugees, they called for the camps (all run by an American Company) to be closed down.

For three days the demonstration continued in spite of the police , horses, water hoses. As they headed home the young demonstrators celebrated a great victory. We salute their great courage. At another camp in Melbourne there was another demonstration especially by an organisation Jews for Refugees. Can't tell how many escaped as the media has dropped the subject.

In 1957, Mao Tsetung said, at a meeting with Chinese students...

“The world is yours, as well as ours, but in the last analysis, it is yours. You young people, full of vigour and vitality are in the bloom of life, like the sun at eight or nine in the morning. Our hope is placed on you.....”
